Mexican Corn Salad

Yield: Serves 2-3 Side Salads

Learn how to make these delicious and authentic Mexican esquites, which are one of the most popular street foods in Mexico served in cups. Esquites translates as "Toasted Corn"

INGREDIENTS:

2 cups of frozen or canned corn
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons red onion, diced
1 clove garlic, minced
¼ cup red pepper, diced
2 tablespoons fresh cilantro, chopped
½ small jalapeno, cored and diced
½ lime, squeezed and juiced
1 teaspoon Tajin seasoning
2 tablespoons mayonnaise (optional)
2 tablespoons sour cream
1/4 cup Cotija or feta cheese, crumbled
1 bag Tortilla chips

DIRECTIONS:

1. To roast corn, preheat a cast iron skillet on medium high heat. Add olive oil and corn, stir until some kernels are lightly charred or blackened.
2. Add ¼ to ½ cup water, to cover the corn kernels. Cook covered for 3-5 minutes.
3. Add the following chopped up ingredients to the medium sized bowl: red onion, red pepper, and jalapeno.
4. Add lime juice and cilantro, toss to combine.
5. Stir in the mayonnaise, if using. Garnish with crumbled cheese.
6. Serve with slated tortilla chips and enjoy this Mexican Corn Salad!
7. Best enjoyed with great company!

NOTES:

1) 2 ears of corn, ca be used when fresh corn is in season. Husked and roasted on the bbq: Brush the corn cobs with a bit of olive oil and grill on the BBQ until roasted and blackened in spots. Remove from cob with a knife when cool to touch.
2) If Tajin seasoning is not available, substitute with a mix of ancho chili powder and salt.
